UGANDA PROJECT. To all those EUC members who bought a copy of Father Martin's "Cuppa Time Reflections" last year you may be interested to know that, with your help, the school toilet block has now been completed. The project was the Pit latrine Project at Pere Achte Primary School in Uganda. Previously about 650 students were sharing 3 toilets in the school as others had collapsed due to long term weathering. Now, through your generosity, a new pit-latrine (toilet) block has been constructed. Photographs can be found on the St Kevin's, Eastwood, website.

HOW DOES CHRISTIAN FAITH APPLY TO DECISIONS ABOUT THE WAY OUR SOCIETY IS ORGANISED?

An upcoming on-line forum, Faith and Politics: Do they relate? aims to encourage open reflection and conversation about this issue. Uniting Mission and Education and Uniting will host it on Wednesday September 15 from 7pm -8.30pm.

Politics and religion- you're kidding aren't you!

We know this is not always an easy topic to consider and we sometimes feel cautious, even anxious in talking about it. We are aware that different people may hold different views to us and political discussion can evoke strong feelings. On the other hand, most of us recognise that God is interested in and cares about all aspects of life and that includes our life together. Clearly, the political world impacts both our individual lives and freedoms and the values and laws that shape the quality of our life in community. How does our faith apply to all these issues?

Encouraging self-reflection and open conversation

We know that there are many influences on both our views about politics and our beliefs about what constitutes genuine Christian values. These include our families and upbringing, our culture, education, church community and life experiences, to name just a few. One of the aims of the forum is for all of us to be more aware of how our personal history shapes our views and the assumptions we inevitably bring to our thinking and decisions in this area. We hope this will encourage a greater acceptance that other equally sincere people will sometimes come to different conclusions than us, on matters we care about.

What will happen at the Faith and Politics forum?

The Faith and Politics forum will be MC' d by Rev Kath Merrifield. It will begin with the life experience of three different church members. We'll hear about their views about politics, what shaped them and their thoughts on the process of voting. There will be opportunity for all participants to share their experiences, ideas and questions on the issues raised. We will have the benefit of Rev Dr Peter Walker's and Rev Bec Lindsay's theological reflections on all of this, including identifying some principles to help guide us. All those who register will receive a short paper prepared by Rev Dr Chris Walker that outlines factors that have shaped the Uniting Church's approach to social responsibility, which will help orient our conversation at the forum. We are grateful for all our contributor's willingness to be involved.

Our main aim is that the forum encourages both a deeper awareness of, and some guidance in how we navigate, this important area of faith and life. We hope many Uniting Church members will join us on September 15

You can register for the 'Faith and Politics: Do they relate?' forum here. The Zoom link will then be sent to you.

If you have any questions about the forum, or would like to know more, please contact Jon O'Brien on 0477 725 528 or at joo'Brien@uniting.org
